

MARIA McCOOL

DIRECTOR, PERSONAL PROPERTY & CASUALTY PERSONAL INSURANCE

“The average frivolous lawsuit costs $91,000 to defend, apart from the actual settlement amount. We live in a society that has learned to prosper as a result of a simple car accident. Making sure that my clients are protected prior to the loss and working with them to minimize their exposure is the cornerstone of my advice. In the words of Benjamin Franklin ‘An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.’”
